

NALA and Institute of Technology Tallaght present

Sharing innovative numeracy teaching and learning: Adult, youth and community showcase

Institute of Technology Tallaght, Dublin 24

Thursday 23 June 2011
1.30 - 4.00 pm

- 1.30           Registration and tea/coffee
Opportunity to view:
1.    www.writeon.ie NALA distance education website
  2.    Maths Problem Picture exhibit
  3.    Primary School Maths Eyes Showcase
- 2.00           Welcome and opening remarks
Chairperson: Terry Maguire, Head of Lifelong Learning, Institute of Technology Tallaght
- 2.15           Ideas and resources for numeracy teaching
Jill Brown, Development Officer, Learning and Skills Development Agency,
Northern Ireland (LSDA)
- 3.00           Showcase of innovative numeracy teaching practices***
- 3.45           Recognition of participation in Showcase
- 4.00           Close

*Some of the ideas and teaching practices being showcased by numeracy tutors from around the country include using numeracy in: art, photography, architecture, money and exchange, fossils, botany, kinaesthetic and visual ways, 'maths for fun', family maths, a numeracy screening tool, maths in everyday life, to support curriculum development in numeracy and solving maths-based and everyday design related numeracy problems.